Hello all! This is a reminder that you had all paid for the Montana State Square Dance in Helena on May 27-May 30th, 2022, at Radley Elementary School in E. Helena. Most of you paid in 2019 but then COVID CANCELED and you requested we hold the money for 2022 state festival so I'm reminding you we have your payment! Thank you!

I've attached some information on hotels and camping in the area if you need it. I suggest you make your reservations as soon as possible because Memorial Day Weekend in Helena can be very busy - not to mention you'll probably get a cheaper rate if you book early! East Helena has also given the OK for dry camping at Radley Elementary School if you chose to do that.

We have a new website in the works and the flyer is located in EVENTS at the website if you'd like a reminder of the schedule or any other information regarding the festival. The website is www.helenalastchancesquares.com The Montana State Square Dance website also has information listed in the Big Sky Newsletter and that can be found at www.montanasquaredancing.com

71nsdc.org is your source for all convention info

EVANSVILLE — 71nsdc.org is your source for all things pertaining to the 71st National Square Dance Convention®.

The registration menu provides links and instructions on how to register, how many people are attending, and from which state. Be sure to represent your state at the convention's Parade of States event on Saturday, June 25.

If you haven't already registered, the housing link will let you know which hotels are still available and how far they are from the Old National Events Center, the heart of the convention.

The education menu is where you can find a detailed look at what classes will be offered, the education tracks you can complete, and how the courses will be presented. There are eight different tracks with explanations for all of them, so you can read about which one would be right for you. For those looking to get some 71st National Square Dance Convention® merchandise, the merchandise menu has you covered with V-neck shirts, T-shirts, sweatshirts, and baseball caps. Shoe bags are also available if you need something for your dancing shoes. Support the convention and look great at the same time!

For more information on tours, check out the tours menu. Evansville and the surrounding areas have some unique sites.
